

Outraged by the half time show produced during the SuperBowl. Our family exposed, including minors, to pornography - there should be some responsibility for a family viewed program, such as the SuperBowl. You need to make this right. It has caused a media frenzy and great advertizing for these performers - as they wanted, I am sure - but they (the performers and producers) should pay for the outrage! We can not and will not stand for this!